

Please reconsider current proposals on broadcast ownership. You must allow individual voices to continue to thrive and be heard. Limiting competition, as Mr. Powell and others seem set on doing, seems completely un-American and dangerous. Our broadcast systems, like our country, were built on diversity and should remain competitive and varied.